

MCABC MEMBERSHIP HAS ITS BENEFITS.

MCA supports your business. We give our Associate members opportunities to connect and build relationships with mechanical contractors across British Columbia.

You get marketing opportunities and business support.

- Advertise online and in our newsletters for significantly less than other trade publications - and reach a more targeted, niche audience.
- Free company listings in our online searchable directory
- Submit your product and company news items for free inclusion in MCABC newsletters
- Opportunities to sponsor numbers social and sporting events throughout the year
- A contact list of our mechanical contractors to aid your direct marketing initiatives
- Free job postings on our site, and exclusive access to resume searches
- Promotion as MCABC member

Your build relationships with contractors.

- Network and build relationships with mechanical contractors around BC
- Regular chapter meetings and social events allow you to build your customer base in all regions of the province

You save money.

- Save money through our MCABC Advantage Program discounts
- Discounts on all your event registrations and other industry publications

You stay informed.

- Be informed about industry and association news with our monthly newsletters - making you better able to meet your customers' needs
- Access to industry publications
- Your voice is heard.
- MCABC and its representatives sit on industry committees that shape the future of training, education, safety, and administration of our trade.
- MCABC is governed by industry leaders, including Associates, ensuring that your voice is heard.
- Advocacy, representation, and lobbying to owners, government, and others.

Associate Members love the marketing opportunities that MCABC membership provides.

Where else can you advertise for as little as $10 per insertion? And with our newsletters reaching over 300 contacts in the BC mechanical contracting field, your message will be seen by the right eyes.

We offer online advertising, as well! Click here for more info.
